

General Instructions

the name of the agent is Jabarator,

- *create graphs to indicate the performance of each product category

- *show total revenue of each product category

- *segregate between male and female clients

- *show month for best seller

- *Analyze sales trend's over time

- *evaluate product performance by demographic

- *identify top seller products

- *use the _retail_dataset_2

- *The data should give insight to the store manager, owner and CEO

LIMITATION

- *No fabricated numbers no inverted categories

- *No unclear question or missing data

The 10 Questions

- *Did we bring in more revenue in the first half of the year (Jan–Jun) or the second half (Jul–Dec)?

- *What is our biggest transaction? I want to know the total amount and what was bought and which gender.

- *Which age group avoids our Electronics section but spends heavily on Beauty and which gender?"

- *Did the holiday season at the end of the year actually bring in a big sales boost, or did it underperform?

- *Do we see a massive rush of end-of-the-month shoppers right after payday, or is spending steady throughout the month?

- How do spending habits differ between genders

- *What are the revenue contributions and physical sales volumes for Beauty, Clothing, and Electronics

- *What age-based purchasing patterns exist, and what is our dominant customer segment?

- *What is our busiest month of the year for revenue, and does it align with holiday shopping?

- *what is the total revenue of the business